Music has played an important role at St Matthew's Northampton since the consecration of the building in 1893, and the Church has been at the forefront of contemporary music and art for over half a century. Benjamin Britten wrote his Festival Cantata Rejoice in the Lamb for St Matthew's choir in 1943, and other composers including Gerald Finzi, Edmund Rubbra, Lennox Berkley and Kenneth Leighton have penned music for the church. I feel deeply honoured to have added "O How Glorious" to this wonderful legacy. Philip Stopford

Text: Revelation 7:9; para. 1899 by Basil Harwood, 1859-1949 (PD).
